Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Notes from the Pastor's Desk:

Labor Day is not only the official end of summer for teachers and students but it is more importantly supposed to be a day when the laborers can take a rest and relax with their families.

This year we again have a Mass planned for Labor Day to honor our many laborers who work in so many various ways to make the parish function well. Our volunteers are the back bone of the parish. We can always use more help. We are presently looking for a phone person for the office particularly for Fridays.

When I look back over the past 35 years I have been pastor of St. Benedict and think of all those who have been a part of the work force and how much they have contributed to the ongoing functioning of the parish it is truly mind boggling. Our Mass on the 3rd of September will be celebrated for the living and deceased volunteers of the parish. Working along with many folks over the years has caused me to ponder and be filled with a bit of nostalgia when I think of so many who have gone on to their eternal reward.

In light of the recent scandals that have occurred and come to light in the church at this time we have suggested that our Wednesday exposition and adoration be a time of Reparation for the scandals that have been brought to light. So we ask for prayers for those of us who continue working in the church. The Knights of Columbus Supreme Knight has stated it very well in the follow quote. "These sins of commission and omission have sent the Church we love, the Church we serve and the Church that Jesus Christ established into convulsions. Sadly, the disgrace not only is borne by the perpetrators, it hurts us all, as does the silence of shepherds who have ignored the cries of their flocks. There are many wonderful and faithful laborers in the vineyard of the Lord among our priests and bishops. However, it is clear that in addition to devastating criminal acts, we have seen many other moral failings by clergy that represent a crisis of commitment to the Gospel."

WHY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION? ALL DAY WEDNESDAY

St Peter Julian Eymard
